All Beautiful the March of Days

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

CLEMSON COMMUNITY CARE NEWS

We are now in need of many of the staple items we keep on hand in our pantry to fill basic family needs: juice, powdered milk, cereal, peanut butter, spaghetti sauce, pork and beans, soup, and canned potatoes. Thank you for continuing to support us with all of your donations.

New address for Iris Nicholas:

February 19, at 7:30pm, the PPC Choir will be joining other choirs at Southern Wesleyan in Musica Ecclesia in a concert benefitting Clemson Community Care.

There is no admission charge, but a love offering will be received. Our choir received special recognition last year for being small, but presenting acapella songs so well.

NAMI Basics

The National Alliance on Mental Illness Anderson-Oconee-Pickens is offering a FREE course for families of children and adolescents with behavioral and emotional challenges or who have a mental health diagnosis. We'll assist you in finding help and resources, to develop better parenting and communication skills, to learn to work with the systems involved with your child, to learn the importance of record keeping, to advocate for your child, and to take care of yourself!

The course will be taught on three consecutive Sundays, March 6, 13, and 20, 2016 from 12:30 pm- 6:00 pm in Seneca. Pre-registration is required. Class size limited to 15. Contact Phyllis Mays, 864-944-1121 or pmays67@gmail.com. www.namiaop.org
